

Please stop media, such as Pappas and Sinclair Broadcasting from using public airwaves to advance their personal political agendas. It is difficult enough to trust the American brand of "democracy" these days. This practice is simply not in the best interest of our country and what we say we stand for. Thanks, Pat McCord